OWEN JONES ON DELIVERING HOPE IN DUDLEY

HOPE not hate challenges the politics of hate and organised intolerance within society.

Initially established to counter the electoral rise of the BNP, HOPE not hate mobilises communities by providing a positive alternative to the politics of hate. Since it was founded in 2004, HOPE not hate has over 165,000 online supporters and 50,000 followers on Facebook.

We are not aligned to any political party and will work with everyone wherever possible.

HOPE not hate comprises Searchlight Information Services and our charitable wing, the Searchlight Educational Trust.

CONTRIBUTORS

ROB FORD

Rob Ford is a Hallsworth Research Fellow at Manchester University. In Is The Future UKIP? Rob suggests that UKIP could be the main right wing threat in the future at the expense of both the BNP and the Conservative Party.

CHRIS TANSLEY

Chris Tansley was elected the new President of the trade union Unison in June.

In Why I Choose HOPE not hate Chris explains why he picked HOPE not hate as his Presidential Charity of the Year and why anti-racism is needed more than ever.

FRANCES O'GRADY

Frances O'Grady is General Secretary elect of the Trade Union Congress. In The Last Word Frances outlines her priorities and voices her concern that economic hardship could lead to rising racism.
